

Skilled Trades Review Worksheet

Name: _____

Provide short answers for the following questions. Point-form is acceptable, if you wish. All questions have been covered in class. Answers can also be found at :

<http://www.aes.gov.nl.ca/app/faq/general.html>

1. What is an apprentice?
2. What is a journey person?
3. What is a Red Seal Trade?
4. What is the name of the organization that governs the provincial apprenticeship program?
5. List three responsibilities of the apprentice in the apprenticeship program.
6. How long is an apprenticeship program?
7. What is the wage of an apprentice carpenter over the 4 year apprenticeship? (for year 1, 2 3, 4)
8. How many apprenticeship programs exist across Canada and how many are administered in Newfoundland?

9. Apprenticeship training plans contain common courses because there is a common set of skills and knowledge that all apprentices should have when entering a trade? List 5 issues that these courses stress:

10. What must apprentices do to become a Journey Person, after completing a training program?

11. How much time does an apprentice spend in the classroom and how much time is spent in work experience?

12. List 3 training sites closest to your home.

Skilled Trades Person Profile Assignment

Baltimore School – 2009-10

Identify a family member or acquaintance who works in a skilled trade area as an apprentice or journey person. Ask that person the following question and complete the assignment. If the person signs the release statement at the end, information may be included in a school display that highlights persons employed in the skilled trades. Use the back of the sheet if you run out of space.

1. Name:
2. Home:
3. Skilled trade currently registered in:
4. Why did you enter the skilled trades?
5. Describe your favorite project to date:
6. Where have you practiced your trade?
7. What advice do you have for students thinking about entering a trade after graduation?

I, _____, agree to have my information posted in Baltimore School as part of a display to promote the skilled trades. (optional)